Be A GUARDIAN FOR YOUR COMMUNITY Report Allegations of Abuse, Neglect or Exploitation

Concerned members of the community are urged to report suspected abuse, neglect or exploitation. With your help, vulnerable adults can be protected and receive services. If you are a mandated reporter, you should be aware of your duty to report and to make a direct report to the appropriate authority. Mandatory reporters are listed in Section 43-35-25 of the Omnibus Adult Protection Act. Failure to report may result in criminal charges.

At Home

If the person you are concerned about lives in their own home or in a relative's home in the community, report immediately to your county Department of Social Services Adult Protective Services or to county law enforcement as appropriate.

Nursing Home/ Community Facility

If the person you are concerned about is a resident of a nursing home, assisted living or community residential care facility, or psychiatric hospital, report immediately to the State or Regional Long Term Care Ombudsman Program.

Residential Program

If the person you are concerned about is in any residential program operated by or contracted for operation by the SC Department of Mental Health or the SC Department of Disabilities and Special Needs, regardless of location, report immediately to: SLED - Special Victims Unit, toll-free at 866-200-6066.

Vulnerable Adult

A person eighteen years of age or older who has a physical or mental condition which substantially impairs the person from adequately providing for his or her own care or protection. This includes a person who is impaired in the ability to adequately provide for the person's own care or protection because of the infirmities of aging including, but not limited to, organic brain damage, advanced age, and physical, mental, or emotional dysfunction. A resident of a facility is a vulnerable adult.

Other Cases of Abuse

If suspected abuse, neglect or exploitation occurred to a CHILD, report immediately to your county Department of Social Services, Child Protective Services.

If suspected abuse occurs in any setting other than those described above, report immediately to your county Department of Social Services Adult Protective Services.

Concerned members of the community are urged to report suspected abuse, neglect or exploitation. With your help, vulnerable adults can be protected and receive services.

Please see the back of this sheet for relevant agency phone numbers.
