

Want to become a Behavior Analyst to serve individuals diagnosed with Autism?

Behavior Analyst Classes Available at USC

The South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (SCDHHS) has partnered with the University of South Carolina (UofSC) to sponsor courses for persons interested in becoming a Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) or Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA).

Any South Carolina resident with a bachelors, masters or doctorate degree may apply to this 2-year program. For more information, including the application and statewide Q&A sessions, please visit: <https://msp.scdhhs.gov/autism/>.

Application deadline is January 1, 2020.

Classes begin Summer of 2020.
